

National Marriage Blessing Is Celebrated in Berkeley, California

Kevin Thompson
October 3, 2015

At True Parents' house in Berkeley, California, two young couples received the Holy Blessing on October 3. With a backdrop of the Golden Gate Bridge, surrounded by family and friends, Gabriel Pugnoli and Molly Adshead, and Hyojin Light and Kairene Posas, committed their lives to God and each other and to building true families in service to the world. "Thank you, True Parents, for making the Blessing a possibility for myself and Kairene," said Hyojin Light.

It was a lovely, simple ceremony, but with the same dignity as if True Parents were physically there. Forty guests welcomed and cheered on the couples. "I felt as if God smiled down in contentment," said Satomi Adshead, Molly's mother, "watching the lineage continue and feeling so much hope for the future."

