

Bay Area Family Church: the 2nd induction ceremony for CheonBo couples

Kevin Thompson

October 8, 2021

Brothers and sisters,

On Saturday we will hold the 2nd induction ceremony for CheonBo couples. This ceremony makes True Parents very happy and proud of our blessed families who were able to accomplish the necessary conditions. The ceremony begins at 5:00 in the sanctuary. Please come and attend if you can. (Please see dress code requirements)

Last Tuesday we had a training session with Yoshie Manaka from HQ who taught us how to get our own story out on social media and be able to engage people. As you know, one of our goals is to introduce 144,000 more people to True Parents and the Blessing through social media. This can engage many of our members in worthwhile activities without too much effort. Please check out the recording HERE

Next Sunday (October 17th) our young people will take responsibility for Sunday Service and showcase their talents and insights. Please plan to support them.

Blessings

Pastor Kevin Thompson
