

The decision to dissolve our church in Japan is a sickening blow

Dear brothers and sisters,

This is a terrible week for God's Providence in which the nation of Japan has stood against God, True Parents and the incredible faithful Japanese members of our church.

The decision to dissolve our church in Japan is a sickening blow which does not bode well for the nation of Japan. This is surely a great test of our faith and commitment to what we know to be true. May God's Will be done.

I recently read a book about the Mormon faith and learned that they had their church dissolved by the American Government once upon a time. That was a rough period for all LDS followers, yet they survived and grew their faith.

We wish for people to know and recognize who True Parents are and that True Mother is still alive with us. We are still expecting miracles to arise, especially if we are united with True Mother at this time.

Let us stay strong, renew our commitment and keep our hope alive.

God Bless,

Kevin and Masako Thompson
