

Chang Shik Yang addresses Paraguayan Leaders at UPF/WFWP Event

Dong Mo Shin
March 1, 2016

Asunción, Paraguay—UPF and the Women’s Federation for World Peace (WFWP) in Paraguay co-organized an event at the Sheraton Hotel on March 1, 2016.

More than 125 people attended the one-day program, including a former head of state and leaders and representatives from government; academia; and the nonprofit sector. Among the guests were former President of Paraguay, Dr. Federico Franco Gómez; former first lady and current senator, Mrs. Emilia Alfaro de Franco; the dean of the University of San Sebastián, Dr. Fulgencio Samudio Ozuna; Rev. Ecurra, director of Pablo Avila College; Dr. Susana Barua, deputy minister of the Ministry of Agriculture; Dr. Blas Oddone, an expert on international trade and agricultural production; and the plenipotentiary consul of the Embassy of Peru in Asunción.

The main speakers were Dr. Chang Shik Yang, a representative of UPF, and Deputy Mr. José Domingo Adorno Mazacotte and his wife, Congresswoman Mrs. Cynthia Tarrago Elizabeth Diaz.

Eight new Ambassadors for Peace were appointed, including Mr. Mazacotte and Mrs. Diaz.

A musical performance was offered by opera singer Gloria del Paraguay.

