On May 13, UPF, in partnership with the Chamber of Commerce of the city of León and the University of Commercial Sciences (Universidad de Ciencias Comerciales) held a panel on family values at the headquarters of the Family Federation for World Peace-Nicaragua, an affiliated organization.

Among the five panelists were Dr. Chang Shik Yang, a representative of UPF-Central America and the Caribbean, and Rev. Jorge Luiz de Oliveira, a representative of UPF-Nicaragua. Mr. Agustín Jarquín was the emcee.

The special guests were Mr. Jose Benito Rodriguez, president of the Chamber of Commerce of León; Mr. Miguel Vigil, president of the Cattlemen's Association; Rev. Roberto Sarria, pastor of the Iglesia Centro Adoración Familiar, an evangelical church; and Mr. July Castillo, president of the Jesus is Alive association.
