January 28, 2017

January 28, 2017 was a very sunny day after a week long rain in Southern California. Families start gathering at the church from 8:30 am. The offering table was prepared with Mrs. Jung Ju Yang and volunteers who worked the whole day before. At 10:00am, the pledge service started with the Cheon Il Guk Anthem and prayer by Rev. Young Tack Yang, District Pastor. Rev. Yang then gave sermon titled "Advancing Life." He quoted words from the Bible verses Genesis 19: 15-26 and True Parents' words.

After a cake cutting, an entertainment program took place. Many talented musicians performed on the guitar or sang songs. The community also enjoyed dance performance videos by young Unificationists from Los Angeles.

At 12:00 pm, a celebration lunch was served in the church backyard. Korean New Year Soup, tokku, was prepared by Mrs. Yang and served with other Korean foods. Celebrating the Holy Days with homemade lunch is now the new tradition of the Los Angeles Family Church, ever since they moved into their new church building.

At 1:00 pm, games with cash prizes such as Yut, pool, ping pong, and Fusbball, were played. Love Nature Green is another aspect of the culture of the Los Angeles Family Church. Hundreds of plant pots filled with soil and green plants such as succulents were distributed to garden-lovers to replant in their home garden.
