

India: Teachers Seminar on Character and Moral Building

Chung Sik Yong
May 5, 2015

UPF India: UPF and DPS R K Puram collaborate for a one day Teachers Seminar on the importance of Character and Moral Building for Peace and Development on May 5, 2015. This was an academic event which received participation from other schools from all over Delhi.

Queen Mary School, Bharti Shanti Niketan, Jindal Public School and New Horizon School also benefitted from the well researched presentation from Dr. Chung Sik Yong and Mrs. Ursula McLackland Secretary General, UPF-Asia.

DR D R Saini Principal, DPS RK Puram (Ambassador for Peace of UPF) and Mrs Shobha Mehta, Vice-Principal complemented the UPF team for their dedicated efforts in making a society driven by moral and character education. Dr. Parmod Kumar Mehra, Academic Coordinator of UPF-India anchored the sessions highlighting the role of moral and character education. All the teachers appreciated the content and the spirit with which the presentation were made.

The Participant expressed special admiration for the presentation on The Attributes of True Love delivered by Dr. Yong and Family as the School of Love presented by Mrs. Ursula MacLakland and wanted to hear more and more from the UPF delegation. The overall program was coordinated by Mr. Krishna Adhikari, Secretary General of UPF-India.

