2018

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands – Rev. 5:11

Introduction

How the Body of Christ is expressed in Old, New Testament and Divine Principle (Completed Testament).

Introduction

Jesus was born without sin. Jesus came without having anything to do with satanic blood. It had been completely separated from him -- God had prepared this line for a long, long time, so that Jesus could come as a sinless child.

In human history; this was the first time a sinless child was born on earth. "I am one with God," Jesus said. "The person who has seen me has seen the Father,"

So Jesus came to restore the sinless position of love, the love that had been lost since the time of Adam.

The Tabernacle was divided into two parts:
the Holy place (sanctuary)
and the Most holy place (holy of holies).

The Most holy place was where the Ark of the Covenant was kept. Here was the place where God made Himself present.

It symbolized the spirit of Jesus. The holy place contained a lampstand, an incense altar and a table for the bread of the Presence, which were tended daily by the priests. It symbolized the body of Jesus.

Enshrined in the Most holy place, the Ark contained the testimonies to God's covenant.

It contained the two tablets of stone, which symbolized Jesus and his would-be Bride and heaven and earth.

It also contained manna, the main staple of the Israelites during the wilderness course, which symbolized the body of Jesus.

Moses broke the tablets of stone and struck the rock twice. This set up conditions for Satan to strike the body of Jesus - the fulfillment of the tablets and the rock - should the Jewish people of his day not believe in him.

Because Satan, who holds sovereignty over the universe, attacks and corrupts people through their life in the world, religions teach one to deny the world.

As such, religions cannot easily harmonize with science, which seeks to improve life in the world.

In the beginning, God created the outward physical body of human beings before imbuing them with their inner spirit. - Gen. 2:7

For I delight in the law of God, in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin which dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?

Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!
So then I of myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. - Rom. 7:22-25

In the Bible, John the Baptist was to have fulfilled the mission which Elijah left unfinished during his earthly life, since he received Elijah's assistance in carrying out his activities.

Jesus called John "Elijah" because John's physical self concurrently served as the body of Elijah.

Next, Satan brought Jesus to the pinnacle of the Temple and challenged him, saying, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down." Jesus referred to himself as the Temple, and it is written that Christians are temples of God and members of the body of Christ... When Satan dared Jesus to throw himself down, it meant that he wanted to usurp Jesus' position as the Lord of the Temple by enticing Jesus to fall from that position to the lowly state of a fallen person...

The relationship between God and a person who has attained perfection of individual character may be compared to that between the dual characteristics of a person, that is, between mind and body.

Just as the body is created in the likeness of the intangible mind to be its substantial object partner, a human being is created in the likeness of the intangible God to be His substantial object partner.

Just as there is inseparable oneness between the mind and body of a true person centered on God, there is inseparable oneness between God and a true person who together form a four position foundation.

In that union, the person experiences the Heart of God as his own reality.

(Jesus: “I and the Father are one” /John 10:30)

Having a fully mature character, such a person is a temple of God, in whom God can dwell continually, and comes to possess a divine nature. - I Cor. 3:16

Today's democracies, characterized by the three separate branches of government and a proliferation of political parties, resemble the structure of a healthy human body to some extent.

Nevertheless, because of the Fall, today's democracies in fact bear more of a likeness to the body of a sick or injured person.

They cannot fully display their original (Divine) qualities and functions in their full potential.

Two people in one

Mind is the internal nature and body is the external form.
Mind and body are two correlative aspects of a human being;
hence, the body may be understood as a second mind. /EDP

He (SMM) said that the returning Lord would come in the flesh to Korea.

Stating that Korea may be an insignificant country today, it would in the near future take its position as the most important country in the world.

*People around the world would envy Korea,
and feel resentment about not being born as Koreans.
Quite skeptical, I asked how he could be so sure in that Christ would come to Korea.*

He replied, "In 1950, Jesus' face appeared over the sky in North Korea, and This was a kind of significant event."

*I had heard of the available site event,
and I remember what a stir the newspapers made it.*

Prologue: Comment from Jesus 27 May 2003

Christians looked up at the sky for Jesus to come on the cloud.

At that time, I wanted to show them the Messiah is coming by showing myself, that by their seeing me, they would know that the Messiah is coming.

*But that was a mistake to think that.
They didn't receive the visions and revelations
the way I wanted them to.*

They thought the Messiah would come spiritually or through my own self as I have shown through the revelations, through visions.

*If I hadn't show myself, instead if I had shown True Parents, they may not have betrayed True Parents.
I feel so regretful.*

Saul

As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven.

Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him,

“Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

And he said, “Who are You, Lord?”

Then the Lord said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. /Acts 9:3

Restoration is like returning to the original seed.

The perfection of restoration is the perfection of the seed.

Through the Fall,
Satan seized the central root.

Thus no one could harvest a perfect seed.

The Providence of Resurrection for People on Earth

Upon their death, the believers of this era will enter and abide in the Kingdom of Heaven in heaven, which is the divine-spirit level of the spirit world (p. 140).

The Providence of Resurrection for Spirits

Purpose and Way of Returning Resurrection

The spirits of people who died before they could reach perfection during their earthly life can be resurrected only by returning to earth and completing their unaccomplished responsibility through cooperation with earthly people (p. 144).

The Providence of Resurrection for People on Earth

We call this process returning resurrection (p. 145).
