WILLIAM HAINES SEMINAR
Divine Principle to Go!
Today 9:30am - 1 pm
Melford, New Hope Family Church

Unique Approach to Divine Principle

Join us for a rare chance tomorrow at Melford to hear Europe's finest lecturer. William just completed teaching a one-week intensive seminar designed for 30 Mid- Atlantic young adults. He's a rock star with them! He will offer a refreshing and extra unusual look into Divine Principle and will do lots of Q and A. We will cover DP analysis of the Bible and start by focusing on Part 2 of DP pointing out how "the work of restoration " in Genesis the stories on historical families establishing the Foundation to receive the Messiah ...laid the base for Jesus and True Parents to come. and human Responsibility

1 PM start to wrap it up!

Come with questions and a willingness to dialogue about relevant topics. We will also cover the main 4 or 5 pints of DP Biblical interpretation that illuminate the issues that will either ease or complicate the Second Coming.

GOOD STUFF !!

BIO- William Haines has been the director of education for FFWPU-UK for the past 4 years. He has been invited to teach the Divine Principle and related topics to young people at workshops all over the world. He was director of curriculum development for the International Educational Foundation in Russia for 7 years and co-authored a series of textbooks for the spiritual and moral education of young people in post-communist societies. The books were translated into several languages and published in conjunction with various ministries of education. Two of the books were recently translated into Arabic and are beginning to be used in the Palestinian Territories and other Arabic speaking countries. William graduated with a B.A. in philosophy from the University of Manchester, a M.Div from Unification Theological Seminary, a PGCE from University College London and a M.St from the University of Cambridge. He is a trained, qualified teacher and taught religious education at a public school in London for 7 years.
