A brief special workshop about the conjugal relationship was held for blessed husbands and wives of Ukraine on December 1.

We studied together True Father's words about marriage, and then there were separate question-and-answer sessions for husbands and wives. The workshop goal was for elder couples to relate to younger families their experiences and to answer questions and resolve possible points of confusion.

These are a few of the questions that were raised at the meeting:

- Creativity in the sexual relationship of blessed couples: Are there any limits?
- Can we consult any literature for guidance on the husband-wife relationship?
- How can we give the right sexual education to the second generation?
