Hello again!

I wanted to bring your attention to a couple of updates about upcoming events and some videos as well!

First off, the Korean Movie Night scheduled for this Saturday evening has been canceled. Please let your friends/family know that there will be NO event this weekend. Also, in the event that you have forgotten, we have been steadily updating our Sunday Service videos on the New Hope Family website (www.newhopefamily.info) These exist for you to review or catch a service you may have missed.

Lastly, in typical Maryland tradition, we will be having a fundraiser for Gambia once again. Please see the flyer attached below for more details!

God bless you! And don't forget that the bus heading up to the Family Festival has 1 or 2 more seats in it! Claim a seat now while you still can.

Andrew.
