

Come to Saturday brunch with Ki Hoon Kim at the Washington Times

Hello New Hoppers,

Bishop Kim is coming to the Washington Times this Saturday to host a brunch at 11am. The reason is he would like to report to us about True Mother's recent visit.

I am inviting anyone who considers themselves a leader to join us. New Hope is allowed up to 35 people to join in the brunch, and I want representatives who consider themselves leaders in their own right - that is Tribal Messiahs, ministry leaders, community leaders, etc.

If you would like to come, please respond to this email and I will put you on the list.

God bless you and see you this Sunday (Yes, I'm actually going to be here!)

Andrew.
