

Belarus Conducts Family Blessing for the Second Time

Belarus, August 19, 2018

Having victorious experience of successful Family Festival with Blessing, Belarus brothers and sisters organized “Day of Happy Families” festival for the second time. It was held on August 19 and gathered more than 30 people.

The Festival started with warmhearted video collage with family photos followed by a quiz with candies. Then Alexey and Olga Minko explained about the meaning and significance of the festival. Leaders of the Blessed Families Department Ivan and Natalia Mochalov conducted a training for families. Then couples naturally joined Holy Wine ceremony, after that Ivan and Natalia asked couples to give Blessing Vows. Having heard strong ‘yes’ they read a proclamation of the Blessing. In joyful and inspiring atmosphere couples did the Indemnity Stick ceremony.

Elders and organizers congratulated newly Blessed couples and presented them the certificates. Then a cake was cut, and time for taking photos, enjoying nice food in a buffet started. During the whole festival all children were busy at various master classes, in order to allow couples to fully concentrate on the ceremonies.
