HILDEGARD BAIN'S SEONG HWA & BURIAL

Date: 5th March

Location: Peace Embassy & Holy Oak Farm Memorial

Hildegard's Seonghwa was deeply moving, with the room filled beyond capacity by friends and family whose love for her overflowed into heartfelt testimonies and shared memories. From the beautiful service at the Peace Embassy to her peaceful burial at Stanton Fitzwarren, the day was marked by both tears and gratitude as many came together to honour her life with sincerity and devotion.

UK BFD

18+ REFRESHER WORKSHOP

PARENT & CHILD

Date: 13th - 14th March

Location: Hossil Lane, Swindon

UK BFD held their first 'Refresher: Parent-Child' workshop this week, welcoming both new 1st and 2nd gen participants for guidance, support, and renewed education in a beautiful setting hosted by Bogdan and Yoshiko. With heartfelt contributions from educators, matching supporters, and local volunteers, the workshop created a deeply supportive atmosphere that strengthened bonds and reminded us how grateful we are for this caring community.

WALES & WEST COUNTRY COMMUNITY

Date: 15th March

Location: Wenvoe, Cardiff

The Community Sunday was a joyful and enriching day, beginning with an inspiring service filled with heartfelt testimonies, thoughtful discussion, and the warm welcome of new friends, followed by shared meals and lively racket sports that created a wonderful sense of faith, connection, and community spirit. Ron's beautifully prepared display boards added a special touch to the gathering, showcasing our international missions, local volunteer projects, and World Café discussions in a way that reminded us of the meaningful work our community is engaged in both near and far.

MISSIONARY ARRIVALS

Date: 12th March

The new UPA team arrived in London, with their captain joining later directly in Bolton; they attended the Sunday Service in the Peace Embassy in South London before being driven to North England the day after.

This is the third batch of UPA Sun Moon graduates, and the UK is the only EUME country hosting two teams this year.
