FFWPU-UK National Newsletter

ISSUE 30.05.26

This week's newsletter is packed with inspiring stories, uplifting testimonies, and exciting updates from across our community and beyond! From powerful reflections and meaningful gatherings to opportunities for learning, connection, and growth, there is so much to be encouraged by. Take a moment to dive in and enjoy everything we have to share this week!

Message of the Week

Dear brothers and sisters,

It is already the end of May. This week, British brothers and sisters contributed on the continental level by moderating the weekly news (Brendan G), leading the weekly prayer (Rhiannon D), and offering a heartfelt prayer (Farhad N). Thank you!

During a head office staff meeting, Ala shared recent wins and breakthroughs in children's ministry, and we discussed how to make our work at FFWPU more accessible.

Bogdan came up with a soundbite explaining FFWPU is and does:

- At the Family Federation, we focus on a simple yet powerful idea: peace starts at home. Strong families build strong societies.
- We offer education, community support, and our Marriage Blessing to help couples build lasting relationships centred on shared values and God's love.
- Our goal is to empower people not only to become better partners and parents but also to become peacebuilders in their communities and beyond.

Click here for the longer version, providing a bit more argument.

How do you explain what the Family Federation is and does?

Thank you for being lights in this time! As always, we wish you a blessed week!

“The Truth Has Set Us Free” Reverend Dr. Dawnecia Palmer’s Powerful Testimony

During a recent visit to the Cheon Won Gung and Cheon Il Sanctum, Reverend Dr. Dawnecia Palmer shared a deeply moving testimony about faith, spiritual awakening, and her experience encountering the vision of True Parents.

Reflecting on her journey, Rev. Palmer spoke openly about a near-death experience earlier in life, where she felt she encountered Rev. Sun Myung Moon spiritually.

“I met Father Moon not in my lifetime, but in my death.”

This experience eventually led her to study the Divine Principle and become involved in peacebuilding work through Ambassadors for Peace and community projects in Bristol.

She also shared a childhood spiritual experience that shaped her life from the age of five, when she saw a vision of light and a great Bible in the sky. During her visit to the sanctum, she felt that same spiritual connection once again while reflecting in the central hall.

“It was like an adult realization of what happened when I first gave my life to God.”

The most emotional part of her testimony came as she spoke about experiencing the heart and love of True Mother.

“The love in Mother’s heart is the love of God.”

Moved to tears, Rev. Palmer explained that the experience went beyond religion or denomination and touched something much deeper within her soul.

Her testimony reminded everyone present that faith is not only something we believe, but something we can experience deeply through love, truth, and spiritual transformation.

Book Review: The Boy, The Mole, The Fox And The Horse

Book Review by Ala Zubovskis

The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse by Charlie Mackesy

"The family should be rooted in heavenly morality, not human morality." – True Mother Hak Ja Han Moon, An Anthology.

This beautifully illustrated book has touched the hearts of both children and adults around the world. The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse is a gentle story about friendship, kindness, courage, and love.

Through simple yet meaningful conversations between four unlikely friends, the book encourages readers to reflect on compassion, self-worth, forgiveness, kindness and caring for others. Its messages are easy for children to understand while also offering deep encouragement for adults.

The calm artwork and handwritten style create a peaceful reading experience, making it an excellent choice for family reading time or bedtime reflection. Many families may find that the story opens valuable conversations about emotions, relationships, and the importance of supporting one another.

Win the book when asked, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" The boy answered, "Kind."

In a world where children often face pressure and uncertainty, this book gently reminds us that kindness, honesty, and love are among the greatest strengths we can nurture within our families and communities.

This book was kindly recommended by Vanya Almeida. If you have a book suggestion for families or children, please feel free to send it to ala@ffwpu.org.uk.

CARP & Empower Team Picnic

Summer has finally arrived in London! ☀️

The Empower Team returned to London 2 weeks ago. Then, this Sunday (May 24), London CARP and Empower invited their guests to a picnic at Livingstone House.

Many guests came with their friends. Through engaging discussion questions, they could create an environment to share more deeply.

Afterwards, there was a special visit from a Tong Il Mu Do master from Japan CARP who gave a short demonstration.

They also invited them to attend the 2-day WS coming up at the end of June, and hopefully they will participate.
