Information for members:

Introducing a Monday night six week lecture series: "God is Alive and Working" offered jointly by FFWPU and ECLC (European Christian Leadership Conference - the European branch of WCLC).

The presenter will be David Hanna, and the first session will be on Monday 3 November, 20.30 (CET).

Six presentations on themes within The Exposition of the Divine Principle offered primarily as an introduction for a Christian audience, in particular ministers and members of their ministry teams.

Interested people of other faiths are welcome to join (if they are comfortable with the above) as are contacts you may have who are currently studying Divine Principle, or who have recently signed membership.

If you have a contact whom you think would benefit from attending, please pass on the accompanying invitation letter or the shortened WhatsApp version that includes the link for Registration.

It is recommended that you (the 'spiritual parent') attend also so that you can discuss the content with your contact afterwards and answer any questions he or she may have. (We will try to include some questions and answers after each presentation, but it does not always work so well on the Zoom format.)

We will begin with a recorded worship song and an opening prayer; the presentation will be no longer than 50 minutes, with a formal end within the hour.

If you are interested to join these sessions, here is the link to the registration page.

Once you have registered, you will be sent the Zoom link.

After the weekly lecture you will be sent a further link from where you can download a recording (especially useful if you could not attend the live programme) and you will receive a reminder about the next in the series, plus any other relevant information.

Best wishes!

Dear

You are warmly invited to attend a six-week series of presentations entitled "God is Alive and Working", exploring The Divine Principle, the essential thought and teachings of Father and Mother Moon.

These sessions will be held on Monday evenings at 7.30pm (UK time), beginning Monday, 3 November, via Zoom.

The lectures will be given by Rev Dr David Hanna and are especially intended for those with a Christian background, including ministers and members of ministry teams.

You may already have encountered the work of the Unification Movement in some form. These live talks will introduce the fundamental ideas contained in the teachings of Father and Mother Moon – a powerful expression of religious truth for our age, combining both revelation and reason. Their purpose is to help unite the worldwide Christian family and, ultimately, contribute to the greater goal of bringing all people of faith into one holy community.

Please register using this link:

(If you cannot attend on a particular Monday, we aim to make a recording available.)

We look forward to seeing you there.

With best wishes,

Register here:

After registering, you will be sent a Zoom link via email to use for all six sessions of the series.
Sessions take place on six consecutive Monday evenings at 19.30 UK time, 20.30 Central European Time.
The dates are: November 3, 10, 17, 24 and December 1 & 8.
