

This year I decided to bless many of my friends

This year I decided to bless many of my friends who were customers of our flower business. God gave us so many blessings through our flower business after we gave all the money made over the first year and a half of the business to fulfill the Total Living Offering.

I wanted to give back to my customers who had become dear friends and supported my business. I would always try to educate them to live up to God's ideals. This year I wanted to bless them with the Holy Wine Ceremony, and everyone has been very grateful to receive it right in the bars and restaurants and businesses. They are so positive.

On the first day I gave the Holy Wine to customers, that night I received a dream in which I was sitting down in the leaders' room in Father Moon's home with one other leader. The door opened and Kwon Jin Moon looked into the room. Then I stood up to greet him with a smile. I then woke up.

I prepared the Holy Wine at home, and I would be thinking, "Who will God bless today?" I always met one couple in this restaurant, but this time they had another couple with them. I felt that their ancestors had helped this second couple to come so that they would receive the Holy Wine.

Similarly, another time I met a couple who always came alone, but this time their brother and his wife had joined them at the restaurant.

In another family whom I had known for many years, the husband told me he had watched a report on TV about the mass wedding performed by Rev. Moon, and he said that it was very interesting and he was very inspired. I told them, "Then you have to attend the Holy Marriage Blessing too."

This couple always ate with his sister's couple and his daughter's couple together. When I blessed these couples, I first gave them free flowers and I told them, "We are going to do a special marriage ceremony. This Holy Wine was made by Father Moon." They felt so inspired that they each insisted on giving $10 to me, so I told them I would give it to my church as their donation.

Then I asked them, "Did anyone have a dream last night?" The daughter said, "Oh, me!" In her dream she was very happy and she was traveling. I told her that God was showing her that she was going to have a happy event today.

Another wonderful couple I had not seen for a few months, and when I saw them again, Lisa told me she was dying from cancer and had only three months to live. She said, "I have a wonderful husband, and I am OK with my future." I immediately went to the car and brought the Holy Wine and Holy Water. I blessed them and I told them, "This Holy Wine can bring you a miracle." Then they kissed each other, and Craig said, "I love her with all my heart." I met them the next week, and she told me, "My doctor said my cancer is completely gone. You helped me a lot." She had talked with many friends there about her miracle. Her husband said she was talking all through the night about this event. I told them, "Please believe in God and Jesus and remember Sun Myung Moon." She repeated Father Moon's name very carefully.
