Sun [Willett] was visiting churches tonight. She blessed the pastor and assistant pastor. A very nice lady offered to give her a ride back home. When they came to the front door of our home. Sun asked her what her position in the church was and she answered that she and her husband were deacons of the church. Sun asked her how long they had been married and she said they had been married 17 years.

Sun said, oh that's great do you have your husband's picture in your cell phone? I want you to do a rededication of your marriage. Right away she said yes. Sun said to her this is a real blessing. She got out her telephone, found a picture of her (Robin) and her husband together. Sun asked her to open the holy wine and she handed Sun her telephone.

Sun asked her to bow to her husband and drink half of the holy wine. She continued, Know your husband is receiving the holy wine and he is bowing to you. Robin put a drop of holy wine on her finger and touched it to his mouth, she touched one more time and the picture became enlarged.

Sun was looking at the picture and she saw writing just above the heads of this couple in the picture. She looked closer at the writing and read it out slowly. It said, "BLESSED" written above their heads!

Sun was astonished! But Robin said, Oh my God!! I had never seen this before!! She had seen the picture many times before but never the writing! Sun told her, God really wants to tell you that you are blessed to day. They were standing there looking at each other and saying, Oh my God, Oh my God, Oh my God!!!. Several more times.

Sun asked me to take a picture. I was amazed, but I still had ask, Was this put in somehow beforehand or did your husband send you a message? No. Sun was pleading, Don't touch the picture, don't touch the picture!!! We were all pleading, please picture, don't disappear!!

I said, let's be very careful, and try to make several copies and share it with others and that worked out. I'm sure she is going to give this testimony in her church and to her family as are we. I took pictures of them holding the phone

Sun felt that Heavenly Parents wanted to make a deeper relationship with her and her family through this experience. We were hugging each other many many times. Among the 50 blessed ministers, 17 ministers were blessed in Georgetown alone. We started these Blessings may 19th, 2019

When you are a active and sharing the blessing with ministers and their churches You can develop many wonderful relationships by Sharing your heart and True Family Values.

We are deeply grateful that these things are possible only because The unending love and sacrifice of Heavenly Parent, Jesus and True Parents.

As tribal Messiahs in the community we are in the True Parents position, Be brave and strong with a sincere and loving heart. Let's move their hearts toward Heavenly Parent.
