

FFWPU Australia's Youth and Children's Winter Workshop held in Melbourne

John Adamedes
July 13, 2025

From July 7 to 13, 2025, FFWPU Australia held a Youth and Children's Winter Workshop at our Melbourne center, under the theme "Heavenly Parents' Dream." The purpose of this workshop was to help each participant deeply reflect on their unique role and value from the perspective of Heavenly Parents. A total of 40 young members took part.

In recent years, our youth and children's workshops have been held simultaneously - giving the children a stronger sense of belonging, and empowering youth to feel ownership as elder brothers and sisters.

Youth Program Highlights

Engaged in insightful lectures, including on purity and the significance of Holy Mother Han as the Only Begotten Daughter

Participated in team-building activities and bonding sessions

Enjoyed a fishing outing hosted by the local chapter of the World Sports Fishing Federation

Formed lasting friendships and experienced spiritual growth through moments of faith and fellowship

Children's Program Highlights

Began a few days after the youth, with engaging activities like archery, arts and crafts, nerf gun challenges, and Korean language lessons

Held meaningful discussions on purity and the importance of protecting their bodies

Fostered a safe, loving space where even young children could open up and receive support from caring older brothers and sisters

Spiritual Conclusion

The workshop concluded with a moving Cheonshimwon prayer vigil led by members of UPA and Korean missionaries. Inspired by their experiences, several young participants resolved to make a pilgrimage to Chung Pyung later this year.