

Next Gen Academy: IGNITE one-week program in June

Jeff Adshead

June 3, 2011

Greetings!

I'd like to introduce you to a possibility. As you may know, NGA has established a workshop for youth age 16-30 called Ignite. This one-week intensive has been designed to bring Principle to life in a highly experiential environment.

Ignite offers BC's a chance to share this powerful connection with their friends who are not in the church. Our aim is not to convert, but Ignite has been a place where 2nd Gen, non-UC and disenfranchised BC's can be free to be themselves - discover their courage, personal leadership and drive for life. Often, through this opening, participants have naturally desired to know more about the source of this inspiration.

Do you know someone who would benefit from this experience?

Perhaps you know a person as described above, or you know someone with a child or young adult who could attend. Please forward the following letter to them. We are transforming culture, one spirit at a time. We'd love to include your friends and family.

Thank you!

Greetings!

I'd like to introduce you to a possibility. Do you know someone who is looking for an adventure? for deeper relationships? for a life-changing experience? ready to find courage and build their personal leadership?

Ignite is a week-long outdoor experience focused on developing true confidence, authenticity, and a sense of ownership over life. Designed to inspire today's youth (age 16-30) to discover purpose and passion in their lives, each day is filled with guided activities and inspiration, mirroring real life situations, problems and obstacles.

Ignite is not a typical camp – we have included a variety of high cost activities and melded them into a transformational experience that leaves a lasting impact. There is no other camp like it, but a comparable one – Warrior Camp, by Peak Potentials – costs about 3 times as much. I attended it and found it to be a life-changing experience. An Ignite participant who has also attended Warrior Camp testified that he found Ignite to be a more powerful experience for him. I would agree.

There are 4 camps this summer. Discover the possibilities today.
