

News Year's Eve at Melford

Jim Boothby
December 29, 2014

Join us
Make Your 2015 Goals.
Pray at New Year.

Tom McDevitt's Sunday sermon spoke eloquently to the value of GOAL MAKING! He also exhorted us to take Jan 1st, New Years Day, very seriously. [like we used to! ]

The first day of the NEW YEAR of 2015 is still extremely important. Even though God's Day moved to the Lunar calendar, Jan 1st still carries almost "holy" meaning for people who are serious about making the most of themselves and their lives.

On Wednesday, New Years Eve "Evening", join other members and church leaders at a study, discussion and Personal Goal Setting Party at Melford from 9pm to midnight , closing at 12:30 am. Particularly, if like many of us, you've struggled clarifying and setting goals in years past, this might be a chance to draw ideas and strength from others. We will study, journal, discuss, and help each other with planning and focusing for the new year.

We'll also have a moment of quiet calm and reflection and prayer in last moments of the year .

“The greater danger for most of us isn’t that our aim is too high and we miss it, but that it is too low and we reach it.” ~ Michelangelo

Helpful Goals of course can run the gamut of spiritual, educational , financial, relational, health, etc. It seems most of us taking life seriously ought to be considering some thing of this sort.

And for Tribe Messiahship building efforts: Great opportunity in the new year to "recommit". And start to realistically and practically address True Mother's Tribal Messiah hopes.

Maybe you want to bring any books you have on goals, or your laptop for Internet access at Melford. There are tons of goal setting ideas and help online. We'll designate one room for prayer, and the remaining space to reading, Internet research, note taking and fellowship. If folks just want to compare notes and help each other fine tune their goals for the new year, that's great.

Perhaps we can get some of our senior very experienced "goal setting experts" to come over and be on hand to help others.

I'm taking my own Goal setting much more seriously for 2015.

Though Pastor Millhan won't be with us, I know he is also very riveted on serious goal clarification. Hope to see you. If you are considering coming, it's not required, but if possible please RSVP by Reply to this email so we have some idea who to expect.

Thanks!

Jim Boothby