

Looking for a team to run the world's first True Parents Artifacts Store

Jim Boothby
April 30, 2016
New Hope Family Church, MD

We are putting together a team to run the world's first True Parents Artifacts Store. We are looking for 3 to 5 talented folks with basic skills in business, ecommerce, and online marketing. Help to build what we believe will be the world's first Providential History Online Gallery.

You will be handling rare Providential objects d'art as well as religious souvenirs from Providential Events, collected and donated by members. Proceeds will fully benefit the public purpose and church ministries.

We are looking for people who feel called to do this. Compensation might be available.

Contact Jim Boothby at jimboothby50@gmail.com