

Dominican Republic Holds Marriage Blessing for Previously Married Couples

Song Yong cheon
January 29, 2025

A Blessing Ceremony for Previously Married Couples in the Dominican Republic, Heavenly Central America Region 5, was held on January 29 at Cardinal Sancha Elementary School in the Bayaguana area under the theme "Expanding Heavenly Parent and True Parents' Blessing to the World" with 27 couples participating.

The Blessing Ceremony was conducted as part of Heavenly Tribal Messiah activities, with a total of 60 people attending, including teachers and the principal. The ceremony proceeded in the order of officiator's entrance, holy water ceremony, Blessing vows, exchange of gifts, proclamation of holy matrimony, and greetings from the bride and groom, and concluded gracefully with congratulatory remarks from Principal Kenya.