Do you have experience in journalism, editing, or writing? Have great communication skills? Have experience in web design or designing software? We have an exciting opportunity for you! HJIFUS (Hyo Jeong International Foundation for the Unity of the Sciences) is looking to hire Editors and Designers.

Job Title: Editor and Designer for HJIFUS

Job Location: Washington, DC

Job Type: Full Time

Job Description:

The Hyo Jeong International Foundation for the Unity of the Sciences (HJIFUS) is looking for editors and designers to be a part of an editorial team which will produce publications on environmental topics. The publications will be targeting the general public and will include news, essays, testimonials, and academic theories. In the wake of growing worldwide concerns about environmental issues and how they can be addressed, this is a good opportunity for anyone who is aspiring to be a professional journalist on the environment and to show people why we have to preserve nature.

ROLE QUALIFICATIONS

Experience in writing, editing, journalism, and project management.

Good communication skills.

Knowledge of design principles and experience in designing software and web design.

A bachelor's degree from an accredited university in either a STEM-related field or in literature. A background in environmental studies and/or a master's degree is preferred.

About the Employer:

HJIFUS is a charitable, tax-exempt, nonprofit organization registered to Washington, DC. It is dedicated to finding, promoting, and implementing solutions to environmental challenges. It has been sponsoring ICUS conferences which have been reconvened since 2017 to focus on environmental issues by bringing together environmental experts from around the world. HJIFUS also sponsors other conferences such as the newly launched International Conference on Science and God (ICSG). In addition to these meetings, HJIFUS plans to produce environmental education materials including periodicals, to develop policy proposals to suggest to national and international agencies, to engage in practical projects to improve human living conditions by tackling environmental issues, and aid in the industrialization of effective scientific solutions to environmental problems.
