True Mother Speech Collection Now Available for Purchase

Holy Mother Han: Realizing Heaven's Dream, Collected Speeches, 2012-

2024 contains sermons delivered by Hak Ja Han throughout the world. Rev. Sun Myung Moon passed away in 2012, and his wife and life partner, Hak Ja Han, continued True Parents' mission as the head of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification.

While most of these speeches were delivered in South Korea, the global breadth of the movement is immediately evident in these volumes.

The dream of realizing God's Kingdom on earth, bringing peace to all humankind, has always been the central goal of True Parents.

Special Devotion and Special Donation for Holy Mother Han

May the love and blessings of our Heavenly Parent and True Parents always be with you! With the opening of the Cheon Won Gung Cheonil Sanctum Entrance, Holy Mother Han has brought us into an exciting new era of the heavenly kingdom right here on earth. As we look back over 6,000 years of history, we notice that each time Heaven's influence grew, challenges and misunderstandings in the world seemed to rise along with it.

This past July was a moment for reflection and unity. From June 21 to July 30, the amazing Pure Water youth came together to express their love and devotion for True Mother and Holy Mother Han, creating a beautiful new standard for our community. Now, let's all join our hearts and work together in the spirit of hyojeong (filial heart) and devotion to strengthen the bonds within our global Unification family!

Preserving religious freedom in South Korea

When South Korean President Lee Jae-myung visits President Trump on Monday, the issue of religious freedom and the current threats to religious liberty in South Korea should be high on the agenda.

The United States has had a long, enduring interest in freedom for the people of the Korean Peninsula. I know this commitment is real and has involved great sacrifices by the American people. My father served in Korea in the last year of the war with Communist China and the North Korean dictatorship. That three-year conflict cost America 36,574 lives, and 103,284 Americans were wounded. South Korea remained free in large part because of American blood and resources.

Our commitment to freedom for South Korea has been consistent for 75 years (my father, as a career soldier, went back to Korea for a year in the late 1960s). We still have more than 28,000 American military troops serving in South Korea, and our commitment to support the country's freedom remains solid and backed by investments and capabilities.

Holy Mother Han: Realizing Heaven's Dream, Collected Speeches, 2012-2024 contains sermons delivered by Hak Ja Han throughout the world. Rev. The dream of realizing God's Kingdom on earth, bringing peace to all humankind, has always been the central goal of True Parents.

"Fifty-seven years ago, right after our Holy Wedding, True Father and I sat before our first wedding meal; I vividly remember the royal table being the color of blooming Susuki Grass. Heavenly Parent's profound heart and emotions could be seen in Father's eyes and he was about to burst into tears the size of snowflakes.

As we walked the path of True Parents, Father and I have been served countless meals; yet, each time we have sat at a meal table, our purpose has remained the same: fulfill the duties of the filial heart before Heavenly Parent, save all humanity, and realize a world of peace. This is why whether eating boiled barley for three years during desperate times, or touring two nations at a breakneck pace in one day, or even having to endure an entire day with a single gulp of water, Father and I have never worried. To us, everything has been gratitude, everything has been joy."

Re.: Guidelines on the New Beginning Special Devotion and Special Donation for Holy Mother Han

May the blessings and love of our Heavenly Parent and True Parents always be with you.

Through the victory of the Cheon Won Gung Cheonil Sanctum Entrance, Holy Mother Han, True Mother, opened the era of the heavenly kingdom on earth, where we serve and live together with our Heavenly Parent. However, as we reflect on the 6,000-year history of the providence, we see that each time the sphere of Heaven's dominion expanded, the world's lack of understanding and disobedience became more pronounced. The providential difficulties we faced this past July reflected this pattern. In response, from June 21 to July 30, the Pure Water youth united to call out for the protection of True Mother and offered special devotions for Holy Mother Han. These pure and sincere offerings have established a new standard for the new era. In this time, we are asking for the blessed families of the global Unification community to respond with one heart and purpose and to build genuine solidarity rooted in hyojeong (filial heart) and devotion.

Therefore, during the month of August, the 8th month (8 being the number of a new beginning), we are organizing "Special Devotions and Special Donation for a New Beginning in Support of Holy Mother Han" as outlined below. During this period, the global Unification community will host major events, including the "2025 Pure Water Assembly," "2025 Continental Youth Assemblies," and "2025 Heavenly Parent's Holy Community Global Joint Worship Service." These events will provide meaningful opportunities for us to reflect on the identity of our blessed families as a chosen people, inspire hope for the future, and most importantly, let others know the providential value of True Parents.

We hope that, with hearts of repentance for having not adequately fulfilled our responsibilities in front of the precious love and grace that has ushered in a new era and new history, we can all distinguish truth from falsehood and that this can be a time for all of us to be newly reborn. We ask that you wholeheartedly participate in the "Special Devotions and Special Donation for a New Beginning in Support of Holy Mother Han" with the spirit of renewal and of making a new beginning.

OPINION:

When South Korean President Lee Jae-myung visits President Trump on Monday, the issue of religious freedom and the current threats to religious liberty in South Korea should be high on the agenda.

With that three-quarter century history of support for freedom, we have every right to be alarmed by recent attacks on religious liberty. The new government has launched a shocking assault on religious leaders. There have been police raids involving 1,000 or more officers and prosecutors invading the homes and religious sanctuaries of conservative leaders. The new government's persecution of conservative leaders has led to intrusions into their personal space that make the Biden administration's assault on the Trump personal effects (including the first lady's personal clothing) seem minor by comparison.

Conservative religious leaders such as Yoido Full Gospel Church Rev. Younghoon Lee, Far East Broadcasting President Kim Jang-hwan and Family Federation for World Peace and Unification co-founder Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon have all been raided in a deliberate government assault on their liberties and rights to espouse their religious beliefs.

Ironically, even as the South Korean government has attacked Dr. Moon, her work for peace is increasing. She is hosting a conference focused on security and peace for Korea, threats from China and North Korea and the Taiwan situation. She has doubled the peace efforts at this time all over the world with conferences in the Middle East, Asia, Europe and the United States. Despite all this, she is under attack from the new, left-wing South Korean government.

The South Korean government's assault on religious liberty comes at a time when the left around the globe is increasingly and overtly anti-religious. There have been serious anti-religious efforts in Japan and France. There are censorship laws in Britain, Canada and several European countries that clearly infringe on the rights of people to worship freely.

Even here in the United States, there was a clear anti-religious bias in the implementation of COVID-19 restrictions. In Minnesota, Gov. Tim Walz initially ruled that bars could hold 50 people while churches were limited to 10 occupants. Then he issued an executive order that restaurants and bars could hold up to 50% of capacity while churches were limited to 25%.

In New York, then-Gov. Andrew Cuomo issued rules that limited churches to as few as 10 people, even in a cathedral that could house 1,000 or more. Mr. Cuomo's rules were so aggressively anti-religious that the U.S. Supreme Court struck them down. The justices asserted that his policy "struck at the very heart of the First Amendment guarantee of religious liberty."

The election of Mr. Trump and House and Senate Republican majorities stopped the left's assault on religion in America. The majorities stopped the left's assault on religion in America. The Trump administration is taking steps to strengthen the right to worship and the right to express religious beliefs. In a real sense, Mr. Trump's victory in November was a major defeat for the anti-religious left. Further, the Trump administration's work at home and abroad is strengthening the rights of freedom to worship everywhere.

The worldwide assault on religious freedom and the Trump administration's strong rejection of religious persecution should lead the agenda during Mr. Lee's visit with Mr. Trump.

Almostforgot Hall of Famer

South Koreans are blinded by the economic successes they have achieved and behave themselves in a fashion of loosing it all: Family, Tradition, Wellbeing and Sanity ... not to mention the strong spirituality that even put Rev. Billy Graham in awe back in the 70's. Very sad.
