

Mother of Peace: I am not the kind of person the Special Prosecutor describes

Dr. Hak Ja Han's Statement at Court

In his post on X summarizing day 1 of Dr. Hak Ja Han's trial in Seoul, South Korea on December 1st, Rev. Demian Dunkley shared Mother Han's statement at court that day. Even in the midst of her humble and troubling circumstances, her message is clear: my life has been lived for Heaven. I am not the person you describe.

“For more than eighty years of my life, I have worked with the dream of attending the Creator, our Heavenly Parent, here on earth. That is why, in April of 2025, the dream of the Creator—to live on earth as the True Parent embracing His children—was to be realized according to the principle of creation. Knowing this, I dedicated my entire life to accomplishing that dream, and I resolved that I must build a palace where the Creator could dwell. So I gave everything to that mission.

I have had no interest in the politics of this country. Not in my entire life. My life has been devoted to educating humanity so that all people, as one human family attending our Heavenly Parent, receive Heaven’s love as true families and ultimately enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Because of this, everyone—political leaders, religious leaders, academic leaders around the world—know me as the Mother of Peace, as Holy Mother Han. Regarding this current situation as well, since they have observed me for a long time, they are deeply concerned about what is happening. It is true that many high-level figures are hoping that this trial will be handled in a genuinely democratic and just manner.

I am not the kind of person the Special Prosecutor describes! I have not feared Heaven for even a moment—I love Heaven! Because fulfilling the dream of our Heavenly Parent on earth has been my lifelong wish, I earnestly ask that, if any opportunity arises in connection with this unfortunate event, you will come to Gapyeong and see for yourselves. Please come to Gapyeong. See with your own eyes what I have done.”

Inside the December 1 Hearing: What Unfolded in the Dr. Han Case

The first substantive hearing for Dr. Hak Ja Han and three co-defendants took place on December 1, 2025, at the Seoul Central District Court, drawing significant media interest and a long line outside the courtroom even before proceedings began. The morning session, held from 10:10 to 11:40, provided the clearest view yet of the prosecution’s strategy, the defense’s overarching rebuttal, and the court’s approach to managing a complex, high-profile trial.
