Rev. Dunkley's message about the protest in D.C

OFFICIAL - IT'S TIME TO STAND. We are living through a serious and historic moment for our worldwide family of faith. In Japan, the government has moved to dissolve the Family Federation. As a result, all of our churches and offices across the country have been shut down. Members have been asked to leave the sanctuaries where they prayed, gathered, and raised their children in faith. In a matter of minutes, communities that had existed for decades were forced to close their doors. For our brothers and sisters in Japan, this moment has brought deep sorrow and uncertainty.

Japanese Embassy in Washington, DC

Join us in person outside the Japanese embassy in Washington, DC on March 19, 2026 to take a stand for religious freedom in Japan. If you want to join us, fill out the form below.

I'm there

“The decision by the Tokyo High Court to order the dissolution of the Unification Church should trouble anyone who cares about religious liberty. I pray that political leaders consider the dangerous precedent this sets for this foundational freedom.”

— Mike Pompeo, Former United States Secretary of State

Religious Freedom is Nailed to the Cross in Japan

We cannot wait until they come for us.

Amb. Randy Evans. Opinion published by The Washington Times

FOR SALE: 260 church buildings, pews, altars, pulpits and various religious literature, including Bibles, commentaries and hymnals. Contact the Japanese government's designated liquidator acting under a court order of dissolution and liquidation. All property has been seized and secured and is available for sale as needed.

Although the government targeting of faiths and churches for dissolution and banning itself is abhorrent to the notion of freedom of religion, other countries following Japan's lead take it much further.

Massimo Introvigne, sociologist of religions

Religious organizations are not made of angels; they are made of human beings who need places to gather. Without premises and without funds, what 'religious activities' are believers supposed to conduct?"
