Leo Carumba, International Manager of the World Tong Il Moo Do Federation and a sixth-degree black belt, shared his personal response to the detention of Dr. Hak Ja Han in a video message. He described visiting the Seoul Detention Center shortly after her arrival, joining other instructors in offering prayers and sincerity (Jeongseong). Rather than focusing solely on emotion, he emphasized the need for members to reflect on their own shortcomings and fulfill their responsibilities through active witnessing, training young people, and practicing Tong Il Moo Do.
