500 people appealed in Washington, DC. Help us bring the message to Japan.

From April 28–30, a critical rally in Japan will bring together 100 youth missionaries, 15 Family Federation representatives, and 5 key ACLC clergy.

This united front is rising up to stand for faith, freedom, and peace as one voice in the heart of Japan.

But they cannot stand alone.

Your gift will:

- Sponsor travel and participation for youth missionaries
- Support clergy leadership and interfaith solidarity
- Amplify a global voice for religious freedom and peace

This is not about privilege—it is about fairness, understanding, and protecting the freedom to believe.

Give today and help carry this movement forward.

LAURENCE BAER

BOOK LAURENCE TO SPEAK

Laurence Baer has spent 50 years operating at the intersection of global architecture and spiritual transition. In 1974, he left his physics studies at UC Berkeley to join the movement of Holy Mother Han, a journey that led to a harrowing kidnapping and attempted deprogramming in 1977.

Following his escape and a featured interview with Mike Wallace on 60 Minutes, Baer became a national advocate for religious freedom. He successfully initiated the landmark California Supreme Court case Baer v. Baer, which established religious groups as a protected class.

During the decade from 1983 to 1992, Baer served as Executive Assistant to world leaders including U.S. Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson and New Zealand PM Sir Robert Muldoon, notably assisting the World Bank in establishing the MIGA financial pillar.

A Grammy-nominated songwriter, Baer now applies that same analytical rigor to his documentation of the "Golden Moment"—the emergence of the Divine Mother—culminating in 15 evidence-based readings and a climactic interview with the Prophet Ezekiel.
