

FFWPU USA: Announcing the Pure Water Assembly, Korea, August 13-26, 2026

Demian Dunkley
June 9, 2026

Dear Pastors,

Pure Water Assembly

Join the Pure Water Assembly, taking place August 13–26 at the CheonBo Training Center in Korea. Gather with young adults from every continent for a transformative two-week experience of Jeongseong, pilgrimage, education, fellowship, and meaningful activities. This international assembly offers an opportunity to connect with brothers and sisters from around the world while building friendships, faith, and a global perspective.

The Pure Water Assembly will cultivate a heartistic global community of the next generation to come together in shared devotion for our True Parents, to foster growth as a true child, and to experience an environment that embraces all.

Venue: HJ Heaven and Earth CheonBo Training Center, Chin Hwa Hall Building B, Hanju Hyo Jeong Won

Fee: Fully funded. The only cost is your flight and travel to Korea

Who: Young Adults ages 18-39 (high school participants are not available to join)

Registration is now open. Please submit your application by June 30, 2026. Participation is limited to 30 young adults from North America, and spaces will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. We encourage you to register early to secure your spot.

For the North American group, we are looking for:

- one translator for Korean and English
- one or more coordinator/care staff that can provide support and care to participants and lead continental gatherings with the North American group

There are scholarships for these roles. Please reach out if you are interested.
