LA Band & Friends Rock Dodger Stadium for Juneteenth!

An incredible collective of voices came together at Dodger Stadium on Juneteenth, performing before a crowd of 50,000 Dodgers fans!

The LA Band singers: Matt, Rebecca Keiko Zinke, Makoto Kikuchi, and Yukiko Zinke (from Ohio Family Church) joined forces with the Sadoc Family Church Gospel Choir and acclaimed National Anthem singer Keith Williams Jr. (who had performed with US ACLC pastors in Korea for True Mother).

Together, we sang our hearts out for Heavenly Parent, True Parents, Jesus, and True Mother!

The Performance

"Love, Let Us Love" – A beautiful, multilingual original Gospel song by Keith & BB Williams, featuring English, Japanese, and Spanish verses.

"Everyday People" – A soulful R&B classic that got the whole stadium moving.

The live choir vocals were backed by a powerful studio track recorded by Keith Williams Jr., Wes Millsap, Eric Ross, Matt, and Rebecca Zinke, bringing a massive, professional sound to the entire stadium.
