Night vigil HJ testimony - Las Vegas - July 3rd, 2026

Sun Shim Santos (Jeong Family)

Good evening, everyone. My name is Sun Shim Coelho dos Santos. This week, I have been participating in the family workshop alongside my husband, Yoo Suk Jeong, and our 2-year-old son, Jiho Jeong. We came all the way from Maryland, near Washington, D.C.

Our main motivation for attending this workshop was to offer an internal condition and have a time of devotion for our second child, who is on the way. We believe it is always important to make conditions for our children from the time they are in the womb. For our first son, I did a 40-day workshop in Korea. However, since we now have a child to take care of, staying in Korea for 40 days wasn't possible this time. So, we decided to attend this family workshop as a different experience—to offer a condition together as a family. Then we absolutely believed that even though it is not 40 days, and the workshop is only one week long, through the grace of Heavenly Parent and the time we are living in, we could offer our condition and receive just as much inspiration as we would in a 40-day workshop.

This family workshop has many aspects and different activities, and I could talk about each one separately to explain how incredible they all were. But the point I really want to share is that through every activity—the lectures, the music, the prayer training, the chanyang with a lot of kids around, the meals that was wonderful, and even visiting the holy ground, the Death Valley—everything contributed to helping us connect more deeply with Heavenly Parent and reminding us of who we are. When we become parents, life gets so much busier. We are always occupied, so even though we continue to pray and offer conditions in our house, it feels like there is never enough time to connect on a deeper level. So I feel this workshop was like a recharge for our spiritual energy and our connection with Heavenly Parent, inspiring us to determine ourselves anew to connect even more deeply, and to connect our family and the people around us to Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

We specially loved to visit the Death Valley, that is a such beautiful place that Heavenly Parents create to us. After we visited there, as I was praying, and I began to imagine that sacred place. It is beautiful but it very hot environment, and some areas before arriving at the lower point are just like a desert land, right? So I truly envisioned True Mother in that place, searching for a small needle under a scorching sun, with the wind blowing sand into her eyes, making it impossible to keep them open. In my prayer, I imagined True Mother, despite all her physical limitations, searching for that needle all by herself in that vast place.

This moved me to determine myself once again to grow my heart of love more quickly and to ensure that we, at the very least, guide our family along this path. Even if we do not accomplish grand things in our lifetimes, we would at least like to become children of filial piety. We want to become a large needle—a giant needle—so that when True Mother looks for us, she doesn't have to search hard because we are big enough to be easily found. That way, we can be ready to attend True Parents whenever they call upon us.

In conclusion, I am deeply grateful to Heavenly Parent for allowing us to participate in this workshop, and for all the love and grace we received in so many different ways. We are filled with so much joy and gratitude. I want to thank everyone who made this workshop happen, as well as all the staff members who took care of our children—I know that is truly not an easy task.

Finally, I thank Heavenly Parent and True Parents for the entire foundation they have built. Specially True Mother, who, even while using her very last ounce of strength and pushing her body to its absolute limits, is still praying for us and dedicating her life to Heavenly Parents and to loving each one of us. We feel like no matter difficulties, Providence moves on because Heavenly Parent never give up. So we offer our thanks from the bottom of our hearts, on behalf of my entire family. Thank you.
