Korean Court Extends Suspension of Detention for Dr. Hak Ja Han to September 2

According to legal sources on the 30th, the Seoul Central District Court on the 29th further extended the suspension of detention for Dr. Hak Ja Han. Her side applied for the extension on the 28th, citing difficulties in detention life stemming from incomplete recovery after shoulder fracture surgery and ongoing vision problems.

The court granted the request. As a result, the temporary release period, originally set to expire at 2 p.m. on July 31, has been extended until 6 p.m. on September 2. At 83 years of age, Dr. Han is reported to be experiencing lingering effects from the shoulder surgery that continue to hinder her daily life. Her side also maintains that progressive vision deterioration requires sustained medical treatment and monitoring in a hospital setting.

All previous suspensions of detention have likewise been granted primarily on health grounds. Given her advanced age, a swift recovery is sincerely hoped for.

The Story Behind Japan’s Controversy Over “Spiritual Sales” and Fraud

Opponents of the Unification Church in Japan have long tied the term "spiritual sales" to fraud.

Yet not a single case has ever been prosecuted and convicted as criminal fraud.

Tanaka Tomihiro, president of the Unification Church (now the Family Federation), warns that to dismiss the spiritual efficacy sellers described as falsehood, and then to conclude that the buyers who believed it "had fallen into error," is "extremely dangerous." An argument built on the outright denial of the spirit world and spiritual efficacy, he said, is no way to engage with the people who have believed in them.

This is the least they can do. I expect them to release Dr Han completely from detention and let her choose the hospital she wants to be treated in. She didn't do anything wrong. Only a Communist Government (which is similar to far left) will imprison her. What happened to her
