@monarchreport25

On Oct 13, Dr. Hak Ja Han appeared at Seoul High Court for her appeal and bail hearing.

She said:
“I need to take my medicine, but I cannot do it alone without someone helping me. I cannot do anything by myself.”
“I would be grateful if you could help me live at home while receiving treatment.”

She also said:
“I cannot see letters even up close now. I have spent my whole life working for humanity, peace, and the True Family Movement, yet I have to face this absurd situation. The pain and sadness I feel is overwhelming.”

At the 1st trial bail hearing (Dec 1, 2025), her lawyers argued she is legally blind, 80 years old, and has serious illnesses including arrhythmia and hyperthyroidism.

Former U.S. Secretary of State Mike Pompeo @mikepompeo said the sentence is “deeply troubling” and that detaining an elderly woman with health problems “betrays South Korea’s democratic values.”

No bail decision yet. Current release order valid until 3 p.m. Oct 20. Next hearing: Nov 2.

This is very worrying news. FFWPU members in Europe are praying for the health of Dr Hak Ja Han and that truth and justice prevail in her case. Religious freedom is a fundamental human right and must be respected. #ReleaseTheMotherOfPeace

I am concerned about Dr. Hak Ja Han's health. At advanced age, with severe vision loss, arrhythmia, thyroid issues, heart surgery and falls, she needs help with meds and daily care. Detention may worsen her condition. Hope for proper care and specialist evaluation.

Where could someone elderly, blind, and unable to walk possibly flee to? Moreover, I think it's wrong to keep them detained when they're innocent. Please let them rest and receive treatment at home with their family.

There is zero evidence in the whole life of Mother Han to show she has ever sought political power. The relentless distorted, lies soaked caricature in the media & beyond will be a huge source of regret one day. Korea is a special land.
So sad to witness this injustice.
