FFWPU DEFINITIONS

"Considering the current situation of the Unification Church, we cannot expect any innovative developments in the future as long as the leaders cling to the same methods they have been using thus far. We must not just hold on to old ways of thinking, old attitudes, old methods of witnessing or existing approaches to faith. This is because these methods have not met our expectations in bringing results. It would be different had we achieved good results.

However, since we have not, we should abandon our conventional faith and life, as well as witnessing methods, and transform ourselves into new and different people. Unless we come up with a new attitude of faith, a new attitude in life and new activities, it will be difficult to bring new development."

Growth Practices

Unificationists follow certain practices and traditions in order to support the recreation of our original character and establish the ideals God originally intended. However, it is the growth of the human spirit and development of heart that should be given emphasis.

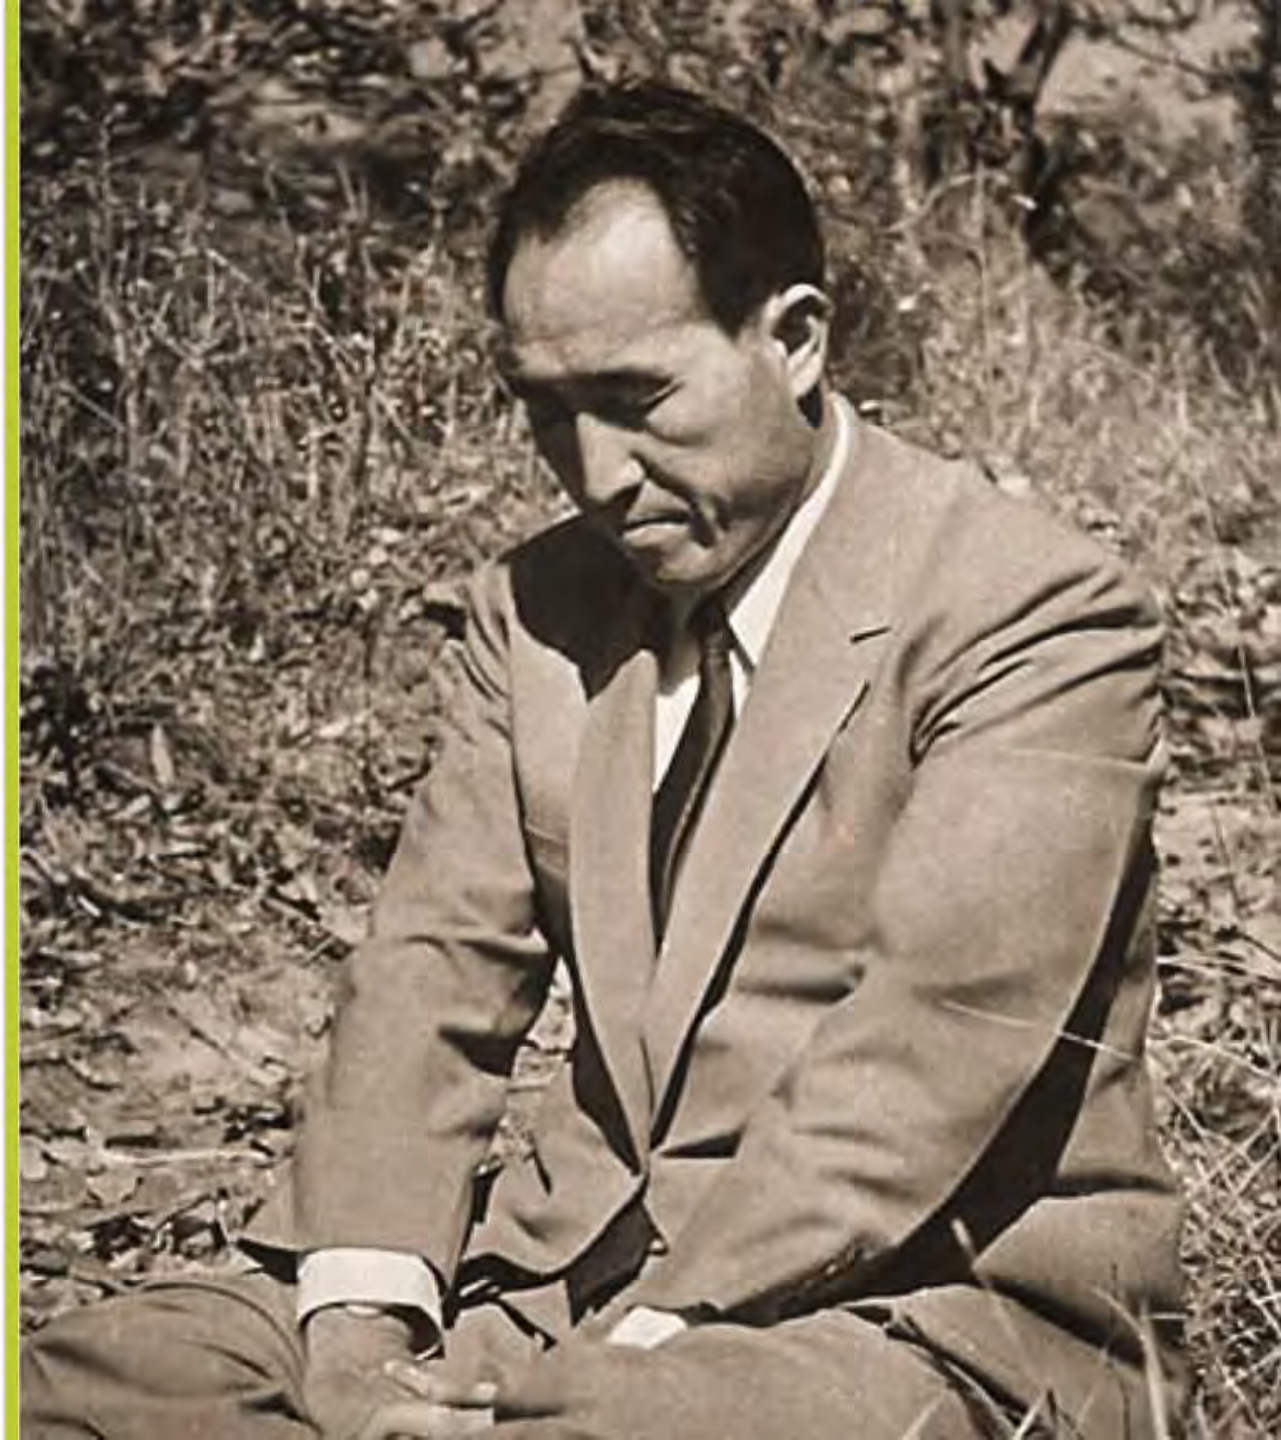
TRIBAL MESSIAHSHIP

True Father's Final Prayer

"Today, as I have returned the completion of the final perfection to the Father, I am aware that I have offered my whole life up to this point to the Father. According to His will, I am spending this time to bring my whole life to a conclusion, using this time to bring it to a close with jeongseong. Tribal Messiahs have established a name that can represent the nation. I have established all these tasks. I have accomplished everything."



True Mother's Call to Action

"Though you are in this clearer state [blessed], you still have responsibilities. Please consider this: even if the water is pure, if it remains stagnant the quality deteriorates and it begins to rot. Even though that water is pure, it has to move. It must flow toward the ocean. Livings beings that are dying will revive wherever this true water of life flows. That is why it is necessary for tribal messiahs to act upon their responsibilities. The tribal messiah movement will become a huge wave."

Let's define the single currency of building the kingdom, as Love.

Make a determination to continually reach out and intentionally love someone within our tribe everyday, and keep a record.

CHARTING THE COURSE

Educational Pathway

Our education and activities should support communities of tribes to fulfill the three great blessings, using all means possible.

Where do the Witnessing Revivals fit in?

CIG - WITNESSING REVIVALS

Witnessing for the tribe

If we are a blessed family, witnessing should stem from our Tribal Messiahship.

Witnessing is a way to meet new people and introduce them to our faith.

It is also a form of spiritual training

It brings us closer to our relationship with God and True Parents.

But ultimately we should be connecting it to our tribal foundation.
