— BILL GERTZ —

Renowned National Security Journalist & Author • 4 Times New York Best Selling Author
Washington Times Columnist • Washington Free Beacon Senior Editor

Dear Family,

Please be our guest at the Melford Center, Thursday May 5th at 7pm for this remarkable special presentation, Cyber Threats: War and Peace In the Information Age by award winning author and national security expert, Bill Gertz. Perhaps no other national security threat in the 21st century presents a greater challenge to the United States and "The Mission of America". A challenge to an America already weakened by economic stagnation, shrinking defense budgets, and ongoing confusion of values in high places. Washington Times journalist and Washington Free Beacon Senior Editor Bill Gertz is a television and national news interviewee. He will bring to life and share his intimate knowledge of what we face now and in the coming years, offering recommended solutions. Some of us have already seen this presentation and it is guaranteed mesmerizingly powerful.

Thursday, May 5th — Doors open 7pm
Melford Center: 4801 Tesla Dr, Bowie MD
7pm Reception, Light Refreshments
Talk Begins at 7:30pm, Followed by Q&A

Sponsored by the new Young Adults and You. The second of an ongoing presentation series of current real world topics every month. Open to the general public. For more information please contact Shin, Vanessa, Amael, Jim Boothby, or email ucmdpastor@gmail.com
