

Which sessions are you attending at the UTS Alumni Weekend Conference?

April 16, 2015

SUNDAY MAY 24th and MONDAY May 25th

Below is a link to the sessions which are being considered for the Alumni Conference.

Please let me know which sessions interest you.

Based upon the popularity of the sessions then a schedule can be made.

Remember

"You can please all the people some of the time, and some of the people all the time, but you cannot please all the people all the time."

I am pretty sure that is how the original expression goes.....

So, in trying to accommodate everyone's preferences I am sure some of you may be disappointed. But hopefully the overall conference will be enjoyable and meaningful. You will meet old friends and make new friends. You will hear challenging ideas; you may be the one bringing the challenges.

UTS is the place to be on Memorial Day Weekend!

Here again is the link for that survey.

Most of the sessions will be on Sunday. They are not lecture style, but interactive with short presentations to stimulate discussion and open the conversation to the widest number of people.

Probably the session on governance will be on Monday morning. There is a lot to cover in that session. It is becoming a hot topic locally, nationally and internationally. The need for good governance is everywhere

Where governance is defective then we can see a degeneration even into "failed states" at the international level. Even in small non-profit and faith communities there is a need to find effective good governance to set example and to offer stability and hope.

Once the schedule of the conference and the break out sessions have been finalized then I will send out the final schedule and along with that a registration form for meals and accommodation.

It is crucial that you let UTS hospitality and the UTS kitchen know your overnight and dining needs. There will be no "drop in at the last minute" at the cafeteria for a meal WITHOUT having prepaid.

Thanks
