WORLD CLERGY STAND FOR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN KOREA

This November, WCLC clergy rallied together in Korea to stand in solidarity with Dr. Hak Ja Han Moved by concern over her case as an example of religious persecution, they prayed outside of her detention center, encouraged local faith communities, and met Dr. Hak Ja Han personally to express their support.

THEIR REFLECTIONS

“She’s clear on why she’s here.
To bring peace to this Earth...”

And so I’m more determined now to dedicate my life to bringing True Mother’s (Dr. Hak Ja Han) mission to fruition”.

FROM THEIR MEETING

"I came to Korea with a certain sadness
because of the injustice (of) things,

But now I go with a message of hope."

ON 20 YEARS OF FOUNDATION

Built upon decades of interdenominational leadership through ACLC and KCLC, the World Christian Leadership Conference was founded by Dr. Hak Ja Han on December 28, 2019.

Together with 20,000 clergy worldwide, WCLC was launched to unite Christian leaders across nations and cultures.

WITH A GLOBAL VISION

WCLC stands as a global coalition advancing the vision of One Family Under God—a world where all people recognize one another as God's children.

Through its monthly webinars, WCLC fosters solidarity among faith leaders beyond religion, race, and nationality, strengthening families, encouraging unity, and promoting peace.
