

International Day of Peace 2012

In Service of Peace

Bretagne, France, 30. September 2012

For the last 4 years the meeting organized by the UPF for the International Day of Peace followed on from the preparation and loading containers for Togo. For this reason the date this year was later in September. The meeting this year was at the Hotel Kyriad in the center of Vannes, starting at 10 am and ending at 6 pm. After greeting the participants as they arrived, representing UPF Brittany-West France, André Blévin and Danielle Burt presented the programme for the day.

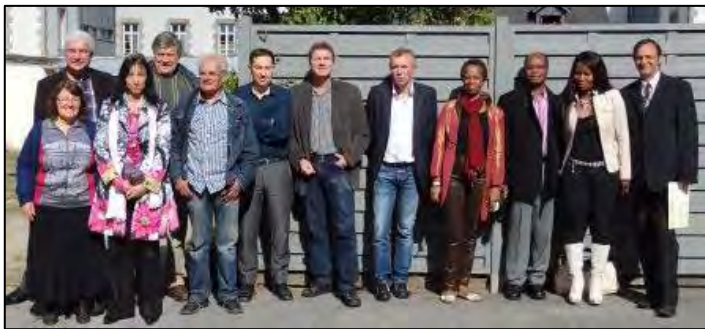

Frank Jézéquel, Doctor of Geopolitics, spoke about “Economy in Service of Peace”

Xavier Guiavarc'h, Teacher in a college for professional agricultural education, president of the Forum of Ploudaniel, and president of several humanitarian NGOs, spoke about the “Role of informal Education as well as Education of Values for Peace and Development”. He had spoken on these subjects at UNESCO last April.

After a time for some question, six new Ambassadors for Peace were named :

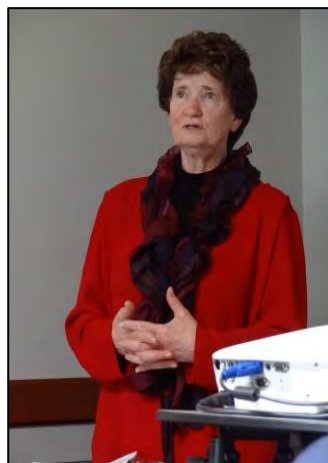

Frank Jézéquel, Xavier Guiavarc'h, André Penhard, Afi Yvette Beaufreton, Raymond Goussamou, and Christophe G. . Patrick Jouan explained the role of Peace Ambassadors and the meaning of the diploma. Four other Peace Ambassadors were present.

Around 2:15pm after lunch the meeting continued. Jean Luc BERLET, Doctor en Philosophy, talked about “Feminine Values in Service of Peace” which he has treated in his publication “The Fifth Horse(wo)man”.

Neilly Cambervelle, President of IN SOLIDUM spoke about her approach to economic development in Africa. After a coffee break there was : Maguite Lorcy who shared with us “How GAIA and its Action in Togo gives many young people a new taste for life”

To close the day, Patrick Jouan presented the UPF, its Founder and its Goals. It was a good meeting between brothers and sisters, blessed families, Ambassadors for Peace and friends. The variety of the presentations was generally appreciated.

The atmosphere of the meeting was very familiar. A number of young people were present, including 15 second generation.

