PEACE BEGINS WITH ME is the theme of Dialogue & Alliance in 2024. When love brings inner peace, it also frees creativity. Many spiritual traditions are breeding grounds for creativity, and creative minorities often draw inspiration for their projects from the sacred. Indeed, sacred texts perceive human beings as co-creators who extend the work of God. Many scientific and artistic endeavours, as well as economic projects, have been inspired by periods of spiritual ebullience. Today, interfaith inspires creative projects that strengthen peace.

Workshop: The values and culture of peace

Workshop 'The Values & Culture of Peace - Fortitude in the service of peace'.
This event will be in French language.

Divided into workshops on the values of peace, the participants will present a manifesto entitled 'Values in the service of peace'. In so doing, we will be responding to the UN's recommendation for the year 2024: 'In a world marked by growing geopolitical tensions and protracted conflicts, there has never been a better time to remember how the United Nations General Assembly met in 1999 to define the values necessary for a culture of peace.'

To register, email upf.france@gmail.com.
