

WFWP Tirana, Albania: Public Speaking Competition Meeting With The Finalists

Katerina Minolari
December 13, 2025

On December 13, 2025, in Tirana, near our offices, we held a post-finale meeting with the finalists of the Public Speaking Competition. This gathering aimed to create a reflective and open space where participants could share their experiences and emotions throughout the entire journey of the project. The finalists discussed how they felt during the competition process, the challenges they faced, and how the experience has benefited them even after its conclusion.

An important part of the meeting was dedicated to constructive feedback. Together, we exchanged ideas and suggestions on how the competition could be further improved in the future, including proposals for the theme of the next edition. Additionally, we explored possible paths and opportunities for continued collaboration beyond the competition itself.

At the end of the meeting, as a token of appreciation, each participant received a modest book containing summaries of their speeches. The overall atmosphere was positive, open, and marked by a strong willingness to cooperate further.

During this meeting, we also initiated a meaningful collaboration with the winner of the 2025 competition, Oriada Dajko. In partnership with the Women's Federation of Albania, 30 books were donated to a rural area in northern Albania, within a project co-led by the competition winner.

Participation was relatively limited, as the competition was national in scope and travel from other regions was not feasible for many finalists.

Reported by Katerina Minolari
WFWP Albania President