The Women's Federation for World Peace, International is pleased to announce an opening of the application period for the 2023 WFWPI Funding Project. WFWP National Chapters are welcome to apply for a fund with the original activities in your regions and nations.

The total amount of funding is US$2,000 for 10 projects.

Application Eligibility:

The chapters that are legally registered with the government in your country. OR

Those chapters that have paid their WFWPI annual national membership US$200. OR

Those chapters that have proven outstanding WFWP local activities in the past. (Chapters that do not meet the qualifications for No. 1 and No. 2 are eligible. Please refer to Section A, no 5.)

Eligible applicants are encouraged to submit a detailed project description and budget breakdown. Applications may be submitted along with legal registration documents.

60% of the grant will be disbursed to the successful applicants prior to the start of the project, and the remaining 40% will be disbursed after the final report and receipts for all project expenses are received by WFWPI HQ. 10% of the grant amount may be used for administrative costs.

The deadline for applications is January 27, 2023, and the results of successful applicants will be announced on February 13, 2023. Winning projects may be launched in March and completed by October 31, 2023.
