Greetings from Women's Federation for World Peace, International.

On behalf of Dr. Julia Moon, International President of WFWP, we would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to all those national WFWP chapters who prepared and submitted applications for funding through the recent WFWPI Funding Project. A total of thirty applications were submitted representing thirty nations in ten regions. The applications supported the following themes: Women's Empowerment (12); True Family (2); Youth Leadership (8); Environment (8).

We are delighted to announce the 11 recipients of the Funding Project 2023:

1.	Albania - Youth Public Speaking Competition "The Family I Want"
2.	Australia - GWPB Assembly & Leading into the Future mentor program
3.	Burkina Faso - Girl Child Empowerment Project
4.	Dominican Republic - Opportunity 14/24
5.	Haiti - Sewing and Computer classes for vocational training and free charging service for non-electrified areas
6.	Honduras - Empowering Myself*
7.	Kenya - Green Solar Energy for the African Villages
8.	Nepal - Installation of Drinking Water Supply
9.	Philippines - Women Leaders Conference, Raising awareness of the role of women leaders as GWPB Partners in solving societal problems
10.	Rwanda - New Hope Professional Training Center Tailoring Workshop Equipment
11.	South Africa - Mangwana Mobile Library

The finalists were determined by an Evaluation Team, which included Dr. Paris Moon, Mrs. Alexa Ward, Mrs. Chika Tsutsumura, and Dr. Jennifer Huang. Each application was evaluated in four areas: (1) cost-effective: 30 points; (2) feasibility: 30 points; (3) social impact: 30 points; and (4) originality: 10 points. The finalists were determined by the number of points they received.

We would like to express our appreciation to President Moon for her full support and for providing the funding through WFWPI HQ.

It is our hope that this is just the beginning, and that WFWPI can establish a tradition of recognizing and supporting projects on an annual basis. This is a wonderful way to further develop WFWPI's foundation, expand WFWPI's impact, and influence the world by working together to strengthen the global family.

* Honduras will receive an applied amount that is less than US$ 2,000.00.
