

Book Launching of True Father's Norwegian language Autobiography in Oslo

Steinar Murud
February 28, 2017

The launch of True Father's autobiography in Norwegian language was held in the premises of the Eldorado Bookshop and Culture Center in Oslo on 28th February.

The translator, Knut Holdhus, shared his reflections on the challenges involved in translating the book from the original language, Korean. A letter was read from our Ambassador of Peace - Professor Arnljot Strømme Svendsen, one of the founders of the Rafto Peace Prize, in which he said that Dr. Moon had played a significant role in securing freedom, protecting human values and preventing dictatorship. Professor Svendsen has been involved in our movement since the seventies.

FFWPU leader, Steinar Murud, gave a summary of the autobiography in a short power point presentation.

Twenty-seven participants attended, including 5 guests, one of whom was a former advisor from the European Parliament. We closed the evening with a beautiful cake, refreshments and informal discussion.

