

Mali's seminar for our Peace Ambassadors on at Hôtel Colibris in Bamako

Katherine Rigney
June 22, 2019

We held a seminar for our Peace Ambassadors on June 22, 2019 at Hôtel Colibris in Bamako. We had 40 participants. Among VIPs we had His Excellency, President Dioncounda Traore (2012 – 2013). He spoke at the both opening and closing ceremony.

During the event, we nominated the Minister in Charge of Institutional Reforms and as a new ambassador of peace.

Cheick Kalif Sadio said: This training allowed me to understand my mission as an Ambassador of Peace and I wish a better involvement of the Peace Ambassadors in order to give an alternative to correct the degradation of morals present in our Society. For me UPF's works and activities is a means to insert new life to our society.

