

Salt Lake City Family Church's Day of All True Things celebrated at Holy Ground

Michael Stovall
June 14, 2018

The Salt Lake City Family Church commemorated the Day of All True Things near the Holy Ground at Sugar House Park.

Pastor Mike Stovall read from an early speech of True Father's describing the meaning behind the Day of All Things, and the preparation it took for the Heavenly Parent to raise up a bride for the coming Lord.

Lunch was served afterwards, with eight guests and friends joining to present their prayers and offerings.