Peter was a man of unwavering faith, a true servant of God whose life reflected the grace and love of the Almighty. He was not just a believer-he lived his faith every single day. It was evident in how he carried himself, his devotion to working in

I was matched to Peter in 1995 and met him 2 days before I married Peter. I prayed for someone that was stronger than me. When I saw Peter in the airport, he looked up and I saw God in his eyes. I knew this was to be my soul mate.

He had a strong sense of what he wanted, how to dress, and to socialize with Rev., Pastor, Ministers, evangelist, and people in general. His journey in life went from one extreme to another. Pete`s goal in life was to be the best.

We had 30 yrs together, many trials up and down, but our love grew strong. Love is the key to an endless lifetime together. Even though his Sickness lasted a long time I never lost my love for him. When God gave me this precious gift, I treasure every moment.

We said our goodbyes two days before he called me and said I'm sorry, I'm tired, and I want to go home.

On August 17, I rubbed Pete`s Chest and head and told him it was ok, I'll be ok and I Kissed Him many times. When he was home, our passing was a wink of the eye. As I kissed and rubbed his head and chest, he winked his eye every time 4 times before he went to sleep. I told him I will love him for the rest of my life. I love you, Babe.
