Monica Clohe Tsotetsi, 69, from New York, NY, passed away on June 14th, 2025. Born on October 22nd, 1955 in the Lower East Side of Manhattan, New York to World War II veteran, Harold Spencer and Loveline Spencer, she was a lifelong learner whose boundless curiosity and sharp intellect left a lasting impression on all who knew her. An avid reader and passionate historian with a particular love for World War II history, her enthusiasm for learning was truly larger than life.

The Tsotetsi family

Known as a 'walking encyclopedia', she shared her knowledge generously, through books, films, and conversation, enriching the lives of those around her and helping others see the world with greater depth and understanding.

She is survived by her husband, Daniel Tsotetsi and her children, Kwonjin Tsotetsi, Lerato Tsotetsi and Kholiswa Tsotetsi. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all whose lives she touched.

Our beloved Monica passed away on June 14, 2025, following a brave fight against pancreatic cancer. Born 69 years ago into a vibrant Lower East Side family in New York City, Monica was one of six children to Harold and Loveline Spencer, growing up alongside her five sisters and one brother.

Monica's warmth and spirit will be deeply missed by everyone who knew her, especially her loving husband, their son, and two daughters. As we navigate this profound loss, we are reaching out for support to help ease the financial burden of funeral expenses. Our goal is to raise $10,000, and any contribution, no matter how small, will be a tremendous comfort to her family.
