Online Sunday Service

If you attend Sunday service online, what is your main reason for doing so? Please select all that apply.

The Church location is too far.

I do not have transportation.

I have health limitations.

I do not feel comfortable attending in person.

I often work or have other responsibilities during that time.

As a parent, teacher or participant, what do you appreciate about Sunday School?

What do you think would improve Sunday School for your children?

For parents with children under 3, what kind of support would you appreciate?

None, I am satisfied with my support.

A nursery where I can watch my children.

A nursery where I can also watch the service remotely.

I would like to take turns with other parents to care for our children so I can attend service in the ballroom.
