

HPHC DMV: International HQ memo on Prayer Closing - Use your individual name

Achille Acolatse
February 21, 2024

FFWPU International HQ has released a memo on the way we end our prayers. The main clarification is that we pray in our own individual names, not as a couple.

It also clarifies how the next generation should end their prayers.

The New Prayer Closing is as follows:

- “I Pray (or Report) in the name of [name of the one praying] of a blessed central family. Aju”

For Blessed children who have not yet received the Blessing in Marriage, they are asked to pray:

- “I Pray in the name of [name of the one praying], a 2nd (3rd, 4th) generation blessed child. Aju”

Re. : Blessed Family Member's Prayer Ending

May the blessings and love of Heavenly Parent and True Parents always accompany you.

In accordance with True Parents' instructions, the era of praying in the name of our “blessed central family” began in 1999. From 2001, prayers were transformed into “reports” to God, and from 2006 we started concluding our prayers with “Aju.”

Since then, many more people are praying in their own names as individuals, in the name of a husband and wife, or in their family's name, yet no further guidelines were given over the years. Now, however, True Mother has made a clear request to us that we end our prayers in our individual name only.

Accordingly, this memo is to clarify our prayer ending. We ask that leaders, blessed families, and members at the regional headquarters familiarize themselves with this information and provide guidance so that prayers can be concluded according to the following guidelines:

1. Blessed Family Member's Prayer Closing

- A. "I pray (or report) in the name of [name of the one praying] of a blessed central family. Aju"

2. Related Matters

- A. Blessed children who have not yet received the Blessing are asked to pray "in the name of [name of the one praying], a 2nd (3rd, 4th) generation blessed child. Aju."
For single 1st generation members, please pray in the name of True Parents.

You may have seen the various mentions of the Create A Life You Love DP intro program that is taking place every two weeks online, and is available for all members to bring their new friends. This is the perfect opportunity for you to invite any and every person you know who might be even a tiny bit searching for something new in their life.

This online meetup is only one hour and includes a short presentation with DP content, followed by small discussion groups for easy sharing, then connecting everyone back together in the meeting for large group sharing. The goal is that everyone leaves feeling refreshed and wants to know more.
